Chinese Placement Test

When: The placement test for the Spring semester will be given on Friday, January 11, 2013, from 1:00-3:00 pm. This is the first Friday before classes begin.

Where: New Cabell Hall 423, 424, and 430

Who should take the placement test:

1. Students who have studied Chinese before at home or in some setting other than UVa and don’t know exactly which class they should take, should take the test before they register.
2. Students who are interested in taking CHIN1060/2060. (CHIN1060/2060/3050/4060 are designed for Chinese heritage learners, those who can speak Mandarin fluently and have no problem with listening comprehension, but need to work on their reading and writing.)
3. Students who want to be exempted from the Foreign Language requirement and who feel their knowledge is equivalent to two full years of study (CHIN2060 or CHIN2020) should take the test.

Test format:
The test has two parts: a written part and an interview. The written test is no longer than 75 minutes and the oral interview is about 10 minutes. Depending on how many students there are, you may need to wait a while for your turn to take the interview.

What to bring to the test:
Please bring TWO photo IDs, pencils, and erasers. You will not be allowed to take the test if you don’t have appropriate photo IDs.

Announcement of the result:
Placement test results will be posted on the door of Room 518 New Cabell Hall on the day after the test.

How to register for the test:
If you plan to take the Chinese placement test, you must let us know beforehand by writing your name on the sign-up sheet which is posted on the door of New Cabell Hall room 518.
